LOCO Roller Derby presents: WIPEOUT: A fundraiser for the Sexual Assault Centre London

London, Ontario— London's recreational roller derby league, LOCO Roller Derby, is excited to partner with the Sexual Assault Centre of London in a fundraiser on Sunday, May 1st, 2011 at the North London Optimist Community Centre (1345 Cheapside St. at Highbury Ave).

Two events will be happening throughout the day. The first is a women's self defence class from 4:30pm to 6:00pm. Advance tickets are $10.00 or it's $12.00 at the door.

The second event is a roller derby bout from 7:00pm to 8:30pm. LOCO Roller Derby's own The Black Heartz will be taking on The Pretty Terrors. Advance tickets are $10.00 or it is also $12.00 at the door.

If you'd like to attend both events, it's only $15.00 in advance or $20.00 at the door. Tickets are available through both SACL and LOCO, or at <http://www.ticketscene.ca/loco>

This is a fundraising event to benefit the Sexual Assault Centre London. All profits raised through ticket sales will go to the SACL to help put an end to sexual violence, and to assist the many victims of sexual assault.

Sexual Assault Centre London (SACL) representatives stated that they are "pleased to partner with LOCO Roller Derby, a recreational league that is committed to Fun, Fitness & Friendship. LOCO Roller Derby goes above the status of a recreational sport. This women's only team works on building community and creating a sisterhood that celebrates women. They are dedicated to actively working to build strong supports which promote women's resilience, strength and self esteem. These are all intrinsic values of SACL and we are excited to collaborate with them to continue our work towards our world without sexual violence.”
